

Sociology is the study of social life, social change, and the social causes and consequences of human behavior.

We provide a unique view of the world using varied research methods. We study how structural inequalities are created and enforced, and personal experiences of those inequalities.

Sociology majors work in many fields:

- Counseling, Case Management
- Advocacy, Administration

- Crime Analysis & Rehabilitation
- Immigration or Environmental Lawyer

- Teaching, Curriculum Development, Archival Work (Museum)
