

Student Organizations: How to Request Financial Support for National Competitions

What we will fund:

A limited amount of funding is available from the College of Business Dean's Office to support student organizations when business students are competing in prestigious national competitions that bolster the college's reputation and enhance the learning experience of students.

Funding is not available for statewide or regional competitions; this funding is exclusively for student organizations advancing to national rounds.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION FUNDING REQUEST FORM

Organization name: _____

Advisor name _____ Advisor email: _____

Student submitting request _____

Student email: _____ Student phone: _____

Event t