

Research Area Paper

To obtain these pre-subjects, first send an email to research@uconn.edu with your name and phone number.

You can achieve both early detection and survival precisely because the signal is not linear, even when the signal is not linear.

Mathematical models of the system are shown in the figure below. The model is a simple linear model with a single input and a single output.

For a reasonable accommodation to participate, please contact the Office of Diversity & Equity at 813.9.1234.

Office of Diversity & Equity